Advisor Name: Gerald A. Townsend

Item 2: Educational Background and Business Experience

Mr. Townsend was born in 1952 in Whiteville, North Carolina. He holds a degree in Business Administration from East Carolina University and a graduate degree in Agriculture from North Carolina State University. He is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA); a Personal Financial Specialist (PFS); Accredited in Business Valuation (ABV); a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ practitioner (CFP®), a Certified Financial Analyst® charterholder (CFA®), and a Chartered Market Technician (CMT). He and his wife, Katrina, founded Townsend in 1982. He is the President of the firm.

Item 3: Disciplinary Information

There are no material legal or disciplinary events to report.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Mr. Townsend is the President of Townsend. Outside of that role, he is not involved in any other investment-related business or occupation. He does hold a North Carolina license to sell life, accident, health, long-term care insurance and could earn additional compensation for assisting a client in acquiring those products. We recognize that any compensation received, in addition to fees charged directly to clients, presents a potential conflict of interest in the rendering of financial or investment advice, as it could give an incentive to recommend a product based on the compensation received, rather than on a client's needs. However, if a product does fit a client's needs, the client is made aware if additional compensation will be earned and can make their own decision to either purchase the product or not, or to acquire it from another provider.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

Please refer to Item 14 of Part 2A of the Firm Brochure

Item 6: Supervision

Mr. Townsend's trades in client accounts are reported to and reviewed by Caleb Griffith, the firm's Chief Compliance Officer. Mr. Griffith can be reached at (919) 782-9689.

Professional Designations

In this Brochure Supplement, information is provided about the education and background of the employees or investment advisor representatives providing investment advice to our clients. Here is an explanation of the various licenses or professional certifications referenced in the supplement:

A Certified Public Accountant (CPA) is a state license granted to someone who has a degree in accounting, has passed the Uniform CPA examination and has experience in the field of accounting. In addition, forty hours of continuing professional education are required each year.

The Personal Financial Specialist (PFS) credential is awarded by the American Institute of CPAs exclusively to CPAs who have passed a comprehensive technical exam covering personal financial planning topics, have a required amount of business experience and complete lifelong learning and education activities. CPAs who have earned the PFS Credential must be recertified every three years to maintain their credential.

The Accredited in Business Valuation (ABV) credential is awarded by the American Institute of CPAs exclusively to CPAs who have passed an exam, demonstrating experience in the area of business valuation and financial forensics as well as completing life-long learning and education activities in the area of valuation. CPAs who have earned the ABV Credential must be recertified every three years to maintain their credential.

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ and CFP® are professional certification marks of the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. In order to use the CFP® mark, an individual must have an undergraduate degree, complete an advanced college-level course of study in financial planning subject areas, pass the comprehensive CFP® examination and have at least three years of experience in financial planning. In addition, thirty hours of continuing education are required every two years.

The Chartered Financial Analyst® charter holder (CFA®) is a global certification for investment professionals from the CFA Institute. It requires an undergraduate degree or professional work experience, passing a series of three exams focusing on investment, economic and financial topics, and membership in the CFA Institute.

The Chartered Market Technician (CMT) designation is awarded to candidates who demonstrate proficiency in a broad range of technical analysis of the financial markets. It is made up of an educational component, experience requirement, ethics requirement, and a membership requirement in the Market Technicians Association.
